

COMPARING 20TH AND 21ST CENTURY EDUCATION

Created by: Antwan Brown

20TH AND 21ST

- To say the least, trending from the 20th to the 21st Century just shows that education is forever changing.
- As times have changed, we see the adaptability of needs in the classroom developed, tested, and taught.

INTERACTION INSIDE THE CLASSROOM

20th Century

- Mainly individual some collaboration

21st Century

- Mainly Collaborative with some individual

ASSESSMENT OF STUDENTS

20th Century

- Mainly summative assessments with some formative elements
 - Percentage/numerical

21st Century

- Formative with summative
 - Criteria based assessment.

LEARNING PROGRAMS THROUGHOUT THE SCHOOLS

20th Century

- Group based some extension or remedial
 - Assessment focused

21st Century

- Individual Learning Programs
 - Process and Outcomes focused

THINKING SKILLS

20th Century

- Predominantly lower order
 - Remember, Understand, and Apply

21st Century

- Predominantly higher order
 - Blooms' Digital Taxonomy
 - Analysis, Evaluation, and Creativity

TEACHING METHODOLOGIES

20th Century

- Lecture, Stand, and Deliver
 - Teacher centric instructional approach

21st Century

- Project and Problem based learning.
 - Student's construct content and develop and evaluate processes.